Thus the more centrally defining element of human angling-of-imaginary speaks to human capacity for contemplation of metaphysics-of-absence \(\langle \text{implicated-epistemic-veracity-of-nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence}> \rangle\) epistemic-projection which is in-many-ways elusive to psychical-nascency disposition. But then this is no more different for the implicit projective-insights approach to thinking pervading the natural sciences; as to a fundamental aptitudinal capacity to think in terms of perspectives (implicitly speaking to such notions like projections and fields of conceptualisation that do not absolutise our present conceptualising framework and actually factor in the limited-mentation-capacity—as-subjecting—‘educated-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating–nascence’—to—limitedness/human-subpotency—of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing (to then project of the implications of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening—as-subjecting—limitedness/human-subpotency—to—‘educated-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating–nascence’)

In this regards, (and as priorly indicated herein) just as conceptualising the ‘actuality—<as-to-history> of physical manifestations of the cosmos as astronomy’ with physics (as to the phenomenal and epiphenomenal dynamics with other basic natural sciences like chemistry, biology, geology, mathematics, etc.) is rather as the ‘archaeological/deconstructive—conceptualisation—<as-to-its-ahistorical-emancipation> of such an actuality conception that is astronomy’. The implication here is that the ‘beholdening astronomical manifestations of planetary phenomena, planets, stars, galaxies, etc. as to a given shape of the universe and its becoming’ are conceptualised from the ahistorical-emancipation of physics (as to the phenomenal and epiphenomenal dynamics with other basic natural sciences like chemistry, biology, geology, mathematics, etc.) as of an underlying archaeological/deconstructive—conceptualisation that allows for the momentous sublimating historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing—<perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-reflected—‘epistemicity-relativism-determinism’> of astronomy to be construed; and so, unlike a naïve desublimating historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition approach that fails to factor in that the varied ‘beholdening astronomical manifestations of planetary phenomena, planets, stars, galaxies, etc. as to a given shape of the universe and its becoming’ are rather undergirded by an ahistorical-emancipation of conceptualisation of congruent physics principles (as to the phenomenal and epiphenomenal dynamics with other basic natural sciences like chemistry, biology, geology, mathematics, etc.) as to their underlying relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity-ontological-contiguity\(^6\). Likewise, the implicit notions of Foucauldian genealogy/archaeology and Derridean différance deconstruction as well as explicited herein as of the relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity-ontological-contiguity\(^6\) of the human-institutionalisation-process \(^8\) (implied de-mentation-\(\langle\)supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics\rangle\) so-underlying human fundamental ontology-driven ‘postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking\(^2\)–psychology or psychology-of-mentation-dynamics or natural–psychological-dynamics’) are tantamount to an ‘ahistorical-emancipation projection and grasp of the fundamental human psyche and potentiation’ undergirding the actualities of societies and their institutional and individual manifestations of ontological-performance\(^7\)<including-virtue-as-ontology> reflected as human aestheticisation—and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology-<elicited–idiomatisation> (with regards to social-setups imbued ‘supposed reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ underlied by language, culture, social institutions, technical knowhow, etc., and so as to human Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology , institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development and living-development–as-to-personality-development psychologismic–epistemic-acutisation—difficulty<for, residualising \{decompulsing\} delinearity—cogency—cumulated/recomposured as to cumulating/recomposuring magnitudes \{of-experientiality/experiment\}’). supererogatory—wholesomeness/profound-supererogation—\(\) of organic-knowledge for say present-day institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development can be garnered with the patent case of say knowledge for the management of a nuclear facility which is much more than its mere inherent processive technicalities (‘knowledge as a mere doable thing’) but equally with the technicity/profundity extending to the facility operators reflexive and contemplative appreciation of the dangerousness of nuclear materials and processes and ability to critically take appropriately conservative and cooperative or autonomous decisions to stave off any potential crises (with these associated elements including their mental/psychological suitability construed as the requisite epistemic-growth/disquiet/discomfort-induced-sublimation,-as-from-existence’s—effusing/ecstatic–inlining-as-historiality-{science/authenticity/nonextrication}—beyond-mere-formulaicity/ritualisation-as-historicity-tracing-{science-ideology/fashionability/distraction}) tied to that knowledge and so within the framework of the facility thought-out/contemplated operational and designing conception integrative of such sublimating operation). This reality about the supererogatory-wholesomeness/profound-supererogation of organic-knowledge is relevant in all institutional domains as well but for when it comes to conveniencing, popularising, merchandising and media-ratings driven purposes which may be innocuous in other contexts but turn out to be particularly consequential when permeating and undermining the political process as to when human sovereign participation is in-effect construed as utterly dissociated with ontological-veracity; as to the fact that there can be a ‘thin-and-tenuous line between ontological-good-faith/authenticity imbuing sublimation and ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity imbuing gimmickiness/desublimation’ as to human aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology—elicited–idiomatisation>, wherein apparently ‘gimmicky techniques’ are effectively sublimating as to their specific aestheticising/creative/artistic existentialising–frame–of–entailment–of–motif–and–apriorising/axiomatising/referencing but are rather desublimating when poorly aestheticised out of such specific aestheticising/creative/artistic existentialising–frame–of–entailment–of–motif–and–apriorising/axiomatising/referencing or when ‘circumstantially appreciatively aesthetically shallow/encumbering/vague/bland/incomplete/etc.’ or when poorly reflected in domains of aestheticisation-towards-ontology where profound ontological-pertinence is important (requiring in all such cases the appraisal of appropriate supererogatory-wholesomeness/profound-supererogation in postconverging–dementating/structuring/paradigming). This underlies the very ontological-undercurrent of vague domineering that is not socially accounted-for (especially as can be reflected as from the ‘dragged-out nature or psychologismic–epistemic-acutisation<as-to-postconverging–de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–eliciting-of-existence’s-sublimating-nascence-in-prospective-aporeticism–overcoming/unovercoming> as to epistemic-growth,–as—{veridical/sound}–relative-reflexivity–in-existence/relativising–from-limited-mentation-as-its-deepening/psychologismic–epistemic-acutisation—residualising,—‘delinearity–for-cogency’ of ‘prospective reference-of-thought appraisal of sublimating–nascence comprehensiveness/nonimmediacy/indirectness’) but for a mere sense of social ascendency which paradoxically leaves in its ‘non-ontologising/disontologising wake’ socio-econo-political crises and malaises to which the majority of the citizenry only come across in serenity as to their numbed/manipulatable/gullible underlying sense of common nation-belonging (and most critically manifests of a veridically suboptimal human-decisionality<as-to-play-of-valid/invalid-decisionality-imbued-sublimation/desublimation> capacity). In this regards, it is herein contended that veridical thought do not need any protection from itself with such covert/underhanded/minioning attitude of non-ontologising/disontologising surreptitious knowledge-without-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/extra-knowledge manifestation which is very much paradoxical as it is rather more socially dangerous (as to when it implicitly posits to ‘covertly police’ right/sound thought) in the sense that it is exactly the need for right/sound thought that can protect society against unsound thought and there is no neutral/objective ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ state of thought that knows of unsound thought beforehand without the prior opened cultivation of right/sound thought (with such non-ontologising/disontologising surreptitious knowledge-without-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/extra-knowledge enculturation as to its ‘unevaluated/uncritical supposedly right/sound thought’ thus leading rather to a collateralising mentality in the face of its prospective desublimation and there is no telling to which extent... flawed ‘presumed incontrovertibility of the ontological-veracity-as-to-prospective-ontologising-and-re-ontologising> of social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of-social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ that seem to wrongly imply that by the mere governmental projection that a given developing country is of ‘supposedly relatively detached social enculturation of intellectualising/thinking-out/ontologising conception of overall sovereign polity design-and-implementation substantivity’ there is hardly any prospective need for a ‘requisite formation of an overall communioning socially-enculturated direct/indirect ontologising-capacity of good governance polity’ (as reflecting its ‘prospective postconverging-aporeticism—overcoming/unovercoming of prior-perspective—falsity/falseness/fallaciousness’); with this misrecognition critically central to the ‘social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of-social-stake-contention-or-confliction jeopardising/perilous nature of the political process’ in many a developing country especially during moments of political transition as to an ontologically-flawed notion that veridical sovereignty can afford to ignore a requisite basic ‘overall communioning socially-enculturated direct/indirect ontologising-capacity of good governance polity’ as so-enabling a prospering/self-sustaining/emancipating social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of-social-stake-contention-or-confliction (a reality which even many a developed country seem to be oblivious-to as to a naïve emphasis of an international relations largely skewed on the basis of mere governmental projection that a given developing country is of ‘supposedly relatively detached social enculturation of intellectualising/thinking-out/ontologising conception of overall sovereign polity design-and-implementation substantivity’ and in-many-ways such an orientation is relatively of poor assistance with regards to such a ‘requisite formation of an overall communioning socially-enculturated direct/indirect ontologising-capacity of good governance polity’ and rather sometimes ending up inducing a generalised political paranoia magnifying the poor dynamics of ‘overall communioning socially-enculturated direct/indirect ontologising-capacity of good governance polity’ as so-undermining the possibility of a prospectively prospering/self-sustaining/emancipating social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of—social-stake-contention-or-confliction). This again fundamentally underlines the patchwork nature of international relations that fails to delve into a sound appraisal of a coherent and creative global and multilateral institutions and systems ontologising-capacity expansion as to a sublimating re-thinking/re-rationalisation of what is the-human/humanity; as international politics and its attendant crises rather arises/manifests as of a crises-driven ‘secondary and mitigating contemplative concern’. Unsurprisingly, this is in-many-ways the reflection of the political and institutional processes of many a developing country ontologically-flawed ‘presumed incontrovertibility of the ontological-veracity—<as-to-prospective-ontologising-and-re-ontologising> of social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of—social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ in the face of their manifest palliative and collateralising ‘vague normalised/stereotyped/selfhelping/feel-good narratives’ of institutional and media contrivance as of ‘process/processive mere-formulaic—conformity/trending/voguing/fashionability/resonance relation to ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ devoid of supererogatory—wholesomeness/profound-supererogation as of prospective reference-of-thought—point-of-devolving/departure/anchoring/backdrop_of_sublimating—nascence<as-to-the-grandest-axiomatic-construct—{epistemic-totalising re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing—residuality—in-re-originariness/re-origination of limitedness/human-subpotency prospective re-encountering/re-confrontation with unlimitedness/existence’ (as so-reflecting their ‘prospective postconverging~aporeticism—overcoming/unovercoming of prior-perspective—falsity/falseness/fallaciousness’); increasingly bent upon overlooking ‘appropriately sublimating technicity/profundity capable of veridically responding to social and institutional postconverging~aporeticism—overcoming/unovercoming’ , and so-inducing ‘individuals reflective estrangement and disinterest with regards to optimal public outcomes of The document contains complex and dense philosophical text discussing the nature of human imagination and thought. It explores concepts such as metaphysics, presence, existentialism, and the role of imagination and thought in understanding human consciousness. The text delves into the idea of 'seeding/incipient pre-eminence of human embodied-vitality/survival/subsistence—existential—disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism' and how it influences the complexifying dynamics of lifespan extricatory/preconverging psychical-nascency and nonextricatory/postconverging ontologising-and-re-ontologising angling-of-imaginary. The text also addresses the idea of the 'supposed abstract-and-abrupt givenness/determinism' of such notions and why they do not 'absolutely pan out existentially—disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism' as to a fully deterministic abstraction without an accompanying ineffable-and-arbitrary idiosyncratic element. The text reflects on the more profound veracity of the 'seeding/incipient pre-eminence of human embodied-vitality/survival/subsistence—existential—disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism' and how it drives human consciousness complexifying-transcending—in-elaborateness as to human aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology—elicited—idiomatisation. and distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought-(apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>) must be elucidated as part-and-parcel of prospective re-ontologising. Ultimately, any pretense to true genuine social intellectual-function/posture will have to ‘face up intellectually with sound ontologising arguments’ rather than plows of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity~preconverging–de-mentating/structuring/paradigming~, as to the fact that ‘no human mortal (including this one) has ownership on ontological-veracity’ but for ‘submitting-to or demonstrating’ limited-mentation-capacity-deepening—as subjecting-limitedness/human-subpotency to ‘educed unlimitedness/existence-sublimating–nascence’~.

Along the same token no one gets to carve-out a space of ‘supposed knowledge that is unchallengeable/uncontestable’ as even the Einsteins were challenged/contested and rather took heart in enabling the possibility for prospective human progress, and for that matter ‘there is no veridical knowledge purpose as merely challenging/contesting but rather striving to elucidate divergences/differences and so along the course of an instigated drive–of–contentivity/argumentativity/dialecticism/discursivity as to the ‘requisite projection of the coherence/contiguity of the superseding–oneness-of-ontology/ontological-veridicality/relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity—ontological-contiguity’ (as it can very much be argued in that sense that such a drive–of–contentivity/argumentativity/dialecticism/discursivity as herein articulated in different respects is equally making implicit challengescontestations to budding-postmodern thought as to the ‘priority/precedence/primacy of prospective ontologising/scientific/existence–(honesty-constraining) purposefulness than just intellectually vague complimenting’). This speaks to the bigger issue of the underlying collective human intellectual exercise requiring that all knowledge reflects its positioning in the overall human knowledge project (speaking of human notional~reflexivity<{{veridical/sound}-relative-reflexivity–in-existence/relativising–from-limited-mentation-as-its-deepening/psychologismic<residualising–decompulsing}–delinearity–for-cogency>–by—{flawed/unsound}-relative-

The histocial consequence is that with an eventual shift in human and social constraining re-ontologising–by–disontologising_existentia-calculus-{between ‘prospective existentialising—postconverging_framing/imprinting re-ontologising’ and ‘prior existentialising—preconverging_enframing/imprintedness social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of–social-stake-contention-or-confliction’}, quite often the ‘social prospect for prospective re-ontologising is poorly thought-out or poorly countenancing/contemplative of social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of–social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ with regards to the consequent disorderly social irruptions associated with various revolutionary changes (which in-many-ways ‘still have to re-do the thinking for prospective re-ontologising’). This speaks to the fact that the manifest existential <disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism> imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology⟩ as opportunistically elicitable by pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentialisation—(blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing-as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness⟩ desublimation. The prospective profound-supererogation of the ‘specific psychologismic-constructs of specific nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations—<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness—reference-of-thought—devolving⟩ projected/affirmed relative-ontological-completeness’ are however less susceptible to such desublimation (and as to when not explicitly imbued-with/projecting-of prospective ‘overall reference-of-thought—and—reference-of-thought—devolving projected/affirmed relative-ontological-completeness’ implications’) given the punctual/immediacy/constituted/compulsions-encumbered—disarming/dis-ideologising/deformulaicity/à-contrecoup/unsettling/unarguable of ‘their specifically projected/affirmed technical or scientific demonstration of contrastive validity’. However, the requisite prospective profound-supererogation of the ‘overall psychologismic-construct of overall reference-of-thought—and—reference-of-thought—devolving projected/affirmed relative-ontological-completeness’ is inevitably susceptible to such desublimation as to the fact of its ‘very comprehensive existential—disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism’ ambit as of transformative implications of human social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising—decisionality—as-to-disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism’. In this respect, it can be appreciated that while the Copernican heliocentric model (as to prospective profound-supererogation of the ‘specific psychologismic-constructs of specific nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations—<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness—reference-of-thought—devolving⟩ projected/affirmed relative-ontological-completeness’) was even debatable/contemplable in its

In other words, this speaks to the fact that a conception of knowledge as to the ‘self-containing/self-

Such an insight is articulated herein with respect to the universal as of totalising-entailing; wherein for instance, universal human rights supererogatorily becomes more and more profound as from say the Socratic-philosophers (even as slavery, class-seclusion and female-seclusion was prevalent as to warped collateralisation), budding-positivists (even as in-many-ways the practices of serfdom/slavery, social-class discrimination and female-discrimination were equally prevalent as to preclusive collateralisation) and today’s supposedly universal conception of human rights (even as it is marked by occlusive collateralisation of other peoples, cultures and nations as well as gender and age occlusive collateralising biases). Such a contrast (with respect to optimally defined/elucidated overarching prospective re-ontologising conceptualisation) can tangibly be drawn for instance between the chronicular/annalistic writing of say a Poincaré at the advent of the 20th summarising past achievements and articulating the possibilities for a new physics as of background substantive projection of human prospective re-ontologising, as so-atypically contrasted to the ‘prevalent re-ontologising unguidedness/abandonment manifested in say modern-day media recounting’ as to an exercise bent on stirring-up mere readability and audience-capture for the mortal’s compulsions magnification as to ‘normalised/stereotyped/selfhelping/feel-good knowledge being brought at the protracted-social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social sovereign’s hermeneutic/textuality/reprojecting/supererogating/zeroing/re-acuting–

This is so-reflected in the instance where there is a mere sterile/anecdotal institutional-prescience/imprimaturing–<dullness of the spirit/psychologismic–epistemic-acutisation–nonresidualising-imbued–(compulsing)linearity–in-eclecticism-of-prior–mere-formulaicity/ritualisation–> display of a deficient/poor aptitudinal re-ontologising–incompetence gesturing/accounting—of-epistemic–phenomenalism; and as that can effectively be so-construed as incompetent, by the fact that critical members of the ‘overall social intellection-aptitude body’ are able to grasp the requisite appropriateness of profound aptitudinal re-ontologising–competence gesturing/accounting—of-epistemic–phenomenalism as to their relevant generalised profound aptitudinal re-ontologising–competence gesturing/accounting—of-epistemic–phenomenalism associated with the mastery of their various specialisms as well as their general knowledge interests. In this regards, it can be appreciated that it is because of an underlying ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ (as to its emphasis on ‘placing a higher value on inherent prospective knowledge elucidation as effectively what precedes the possibility for prospective human re-ontologising’) that even a deliberate inclination for pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—\text{in-subontologisation/subpotentiation—} \text{(blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing—amplituing/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness ) ‘isn’t outrightly and explicitly dismissive of requisite prospective knowledge elucidation’; and thusly, exposing itself (as to human ontological-commitment and universal-transparency of meaningfulness-and-teleology, with respect to underlying human ‘crossgenerational notional–firstnaturedness-formativeness—\text{as-to-eventualising–inkling-drive–or–seeding–misprising}—\text{mental-processing–parity for ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology>/morality/ethics/justice/etc., for sublimating–prolongation) to its contestation–and–undermining as from the genuine social intellectual–function/posture re-ontologising. In this respect, in-many-ways the re-ontologising enterprises of Socratic-philosophers universalising-idealisation and budding-positivists positivism/rational-empiricism (as to their correspondingly 'unblurriness/blurriness–threshold–framing/formulation/catchmenting/truncating/compulsing/linearising of ancient-sophists non-universalising and medieval-scholasticism nonpositivising) could only arise as to the reality of an underlying manifest ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ (of many an ancient-sophist non-universalising and many a medieval-scholastics nonpositivising) in ‘placing a higher value on inherent prospective knowledge elucidation as effectively what precedes the possibility for prospective human re-ontologising’; and thus the susceptibility of this underlying manifest ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ to the eliciting of human ontological-commitment and universal-transparency of meaningfulness-and-teleology (with respect to underlying human ‘crossgenerational notional–firstnaturedness-formativeness—\text{as-to—}\text{in-relat... eventualising–inkling-drive–or–seeding-misprising—mental-processing–parity for ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology>/morality/ethics/justice/etc.’) for sublimating–prolongation. Such that in-many-ways it can be appreciated that Socratic-philosophers rather engaged with many of such an ancient-sophist to elicit prospective universalising-idealisation while much of the contribution to Diderot-led Encyclopédistes project for instance came from medieval-scholastics with a weak positivistic/rational-empiricism outlook (notwithstanding anectodally that as to their given tolerance for such new ideas and the exposition of such ideas some of the medieval-scholastics effectively destroyed sections and pages of this enlightening project). Thus it is important to grasp here that ‘with respect to prospectively requisite sublimating–prolongation at unblurriness/blurriness–threshold–framing/formulation/catchmenting/truncating/compulsing/linearising’ (unlike the take/impression-given, which truly rather manifests consciously/unconsciously prior-perspective—falsity/falseness/fallaciousness of a mere ‘logical/rationalising exercise’, of a deliberate inclination for pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation—{(blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness ) flawed projection of a ‘neutral confrontation of ideas’ as if of ‘prospective mutual/dialogical engagement in knowledge elucidation for sublimating–prolongation’ as so-wrongly implying ‘despite-the-self exercise of epistemic-projection in notional–self-distantiation—<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing>’ involved in ‘limitedness/human-subpotency prospective re-encountering/re-confrontation with unlimitedness/existence—<full-potency-of sublimating–nascence>’): (the effectively manifest ‘epistemic-decadence’ or teleological-decadence—<-in-dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of }{<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-

In this respect, in many ways the ‘formal presentation of the natural sciences themselves’ is rather an incomplete/partial ‘nominalised outcome picture’ of relative-reflexivity (apparently excluding of ‘supersededly-deflatedly/overlookably-nominalised relative-unreflexivity’), as of their full formative linguisivity-{of-psychologismic-epistemic-acutisation/acutising–human–per-cep-ti-vi-ty,-as-to-aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology-<elicited–idiomatisation>} (as to relative-exercises, discussions, etc. elucidated relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity) towards the eventually considered judgment call (whether as of exam or otherwise) of achieving such an implicated ‘nominalised outcome picture’ relative-reflexivity competence. This veridically implies for instance that the conception of mathematics can always be re-articulated to reflect the ‘existential&lt;disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism&gt;&lt;amplituding/formative—epistemicity&gt;-totalising—thrownness-in-existence’ disseminative—sublimating-selectivity-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~postconverging—de-mentating/structuring/paradigming ~over—desublimating—deselectivity—of—ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity ~preconverging—de-mentating/structuring/paradigming (manifest ‘despite-the-self exercise of epistemic-projection in notional—self-distantiation—&lt;imbued—remotif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing&gt;’ involved in ‘limitedness/human-subpotency prospective re-encountering/re-confrontation with unlimitedness/existence—full-potency—of—sublimating—nascence’ on-the-one-hand over on-the-other-hand ‘epistemic-decadence’ or teleological-decadence—&lt;in—dimensionality-of—desublimating—lack—of—&lt;&lt;amplituding/formative—supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth—or—conflatedness —transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation&gt;—imbued distractive-alignment—of—reference—of—thought—&lt;of—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing&gt;’); and so, beyond our presently common nominalised conception of mathematics as to a ‘nominalised outcome picture’ of relative-reflexivity (apparently excluding of ‘supersededly/deflatedly/overlookably—nominalised relative-unreflexivity’). Rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing (as often overtly manifested with various cable and media outlets) undermining of the social ‘intellectualising of meaningfulness-and-teleology’ (herein construed as ‘sovereign–function/posture-as-to-existentially-manifest-embodied-subject-consciousness-and-direct/deferential-conscientiousness’,-as-of-its-epistemic-reflexivity/unreflexivity-in-existence/teleology de-intellectualising’) is particularly socially nefarious with regards to ‘desovereignising and de-intellectualising eliciting of compulsions/magnified-representation-of-compulsions’ having little to do with veridical existential disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism sovereign claims/interests. As to the fact sovereign claims/interests that are not ‘intellectually constructed and translated/formulated/articulated’ are ‘only of virtual/ineffective reckoning’ with respect to political, social, economic and other institutional policy frameworks of ‘human manifest existentialising–decisionality—as to disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism–coming-to-a-head/culmination-point–of-desovereignising-or-sovereignising—sovereign-repassing’—(so-reflected as of underlying ‘constraining direct/deferential micro-decisionality/macro-decisionality throwness-disposition of disontologising/re-ontologising’ upon the ‘social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of-social-stake-contention-or-confliction construct’); and rather defaulting onto vested interests implicitly/explicitly ‘constructed and translated/formulated/articulated’ (however their manifest inadequacy as to requisite delinearising–imbuing conscientiousness–demoronisation—as to renewing realisation/re-perception/re-thought–reframing cogency, chronicularity/annality–of-relative-reflexivity, as-to-profound-supererogation’). This insight as to the ‘construction and translation/formulation/articulation’ of sovereign claims/interests is readily appreciated with uncontentious/nominalised social-stake-contention-or-confliction as to ‘intellectually constructed and translated/formulated/articulated’ policy frameworks of say consumer protection, health and safety, etc. Such that it is rather relatively unthinkable to socially contemplate of rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing contestation of such social advances and protection. But then beyond such a sphere of directly personal and communal consequences, rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing carries much more hideous and indirect desovereignising and de-intellectualising implications with respect to broader political, social, economic and other institutional policy and orientation frameworks (as so-reflected historically with tactical media, legal and public policy destabilisation/undermining, with the ‘referenced formulaically–passivated/linearised-forward-facing—institutional–existentialising–framing-by-enframing/{worlding} mere frontage’ construed as of a ‘public threshold of tolerance/ineptitude’ to be tactically toyed with by such rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing). It is herein contended that beyond the directly manifest public policy implications of rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing, rhetorising further manifests circuitously/indirectly as to a surreptitious posturing all along the ‘intellectual production process and its derived policy fulfilment and orientations’ in critically preempting and stifling sovereign claims/interests ‘intellectual construction and translation/formulation/articulation’; as so-reflected increasingly as to self-serving institutional capital and assetising conception of knowledge (of manifest institutionalising–inflative-distortion-as-to-prior_mere-formulaicity/ritualisation-failing-prospective-profound-supererogation > institutionalising/organising/mutualising/methodologising). It is herein, contended as well (with regards to the consequence of ontologically-deficient implications as to ‘baseline/nominalising/ditional—aptitudinal—underlay-as-to-prior-unblurriness–reframing/reformulation/decatchmenting/detruncating/decompulsing/delinearising’-<imbued_aptitudinal-coherence-of-existentially-manifest–hunches/cues/flags>) that in many ways the ‘grossly impertinent and intellectually irrational supposed critique’ of postmodern thought (by such rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing) in-effect portends of a much more conscious/unconscious sinister and intellectually-irrelevant purpose of preemptively undermining its ‘overarching intellectual construction and translation/formulation/articulation’ of democratic and overall human emancipation sovereign claims/interests. And so, while paradoxically projecting of a flawed non-ontologising implicated/explicated conception of human sovereign–emergence/becoming–existentially-imbuing human freedom as to supererogating/surrealising for ‘knowledge-empowerment-over-ignorance-disempowerment’<as-of-‘developing-and-availing–sovereign-sublimating_potential/possibilities/options/choices’–as-to-the-‘credibility’/‘ontological-veracity’–underlying-the-‘sovereign-conscious/conscientious-backdrop’>. Such ‘intellectual irrationality’ can be reflected for instance with the cynical equating of ‘the wider social issues/problematics of emancipatory delinearising–imbuing_conscientiousness–demoronisation<as-to-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought>–reframing cogency_chronicularity/annality–of-relative-reflexivity–as-to-profound-supererogation’ with disontologising/subontologising–oddballing ontologically-flawed conception (as if structural–<as-to-cogency_chronicularity/annality–of-relative-reflexivity–as-to-profound-supererogation> as reflected with the ‘supposed critique of cancel culture’. As very much typical of historical rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising–oddballing undermining (of structural–<as-to-cogency_chronicularity/annality–of-relative-reflexivity–as-to-profound-supererogation> political, social, economic, media and other institutional policy and orientation issues); as allowed by the ‘democratic practice ontologising unwieldiness’ poorly accounting for such undermining as to ‘skewed social and institutional access/gatekeeping of sublimating/desublimating ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’. It is equally contended herein that such historical recurrent rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising– oddballing speaks of the bigger challenge of a Derridean democracy to come with respect to the expansion of the human/humanity imaginary and re-ontologising potentiation (as to going beyond a present anti-Establishment electorate entrapped in Establishment politics which is rather overrun by overt and surreptitious rhetorising impressioning and disontologising/subontologising—oddballing). Critically in this respect, human intellectual—and—moral responsibility/relative-reflexivity or irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity (however counterintuitive to a presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness intradimensional conception ‘wrongly construed as rather as of discrete individual ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology>/morality/ethics/justice/etc.’) is rather veridically of individuative—conscious/unconscious implications of ‘protracted-social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social relative direct/deferential—responsibility/relative-reflexivity or irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity to cogency_chronicularity/annality—of-relative-reflexivity,—as-to-profound-supererogation”. Speaking to requisite individual self-consciousness conscientiousness-appraisal as being rather responsible with regards to a projection of ‘individuative—conscious/unconscious implications of protracted-social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social’ (and not the naivety of mere discrete individual responsibility); in reflection of requisite psychologismic—epistemic-acutisation—<as-to—postconverging—de-mentating/structuring/paradigming,—eliciting-of-existence’s—sublimating— nascence—nascence-in-prospective—aporetic—overcoming/unovercoming> as to epistemic—growth,—as_—{veridical/sound}—relative—reflexivity—in—existence/relativising—from—limited—mentation—as—its— deepening/psychologismic—epistemic—acutisation—residualising,—{decompulsing}—delinearity—for—cogency imbued ‘cut-out—as—to re—ontologising—redressing/straightening out’ (as of relative—reflexivity psychologismic—transfixity—<placeholder—setup—ontological—rescheduling—in— realigning/preactivity/formative—becoming/psychoanalytical—unshackling,—as—to—residualising— {decompulsing}—delinearity—over—nonresidualising—{compulsing}—linearity>) for sublimating—prolongation (in ‘reconstructing of ‘reference-of-thought- devolving’). It is important for a ‘re-ontologising existential <disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism— conception’ to deliberately articulate the uncompromising implications (not of a ‘discrete conception of individual intellectual–and–moral responsibility/relative-reflexivity or irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity’ which is ontologically-vague with respect to requisite postconverging—aporeticism—overcoming/uneovercoming) but rather of manifest individuative–conscious/unconscious implications of ‘protracted-social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social relative direct/deferential–responsibility/relative-reflexivity or irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity to cogency_chronicularity/annality–of-relative-reflexivity,-as-to-profound-supererogation ‘. So-insightfully grasped as to the veracity that for instance there is no non-positivising mental-disposition in a positivising registry-worldview not because of positivising individuals discrete exceptionalism (but for individuative–conscious/unconscious implications of protracted-social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social positivising), as equally reflected with the fact that human conscious/unconscious pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation—(blurring/undermining-of-prospective-

social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social positivising): is effectively what truly underlines the veracity of the ‘differential magnitudes of human experientiality/experiment—<as-

As to the so-implied conception of the notion of relativism as to originary—and—re-originary/re-ontologising—nascency recurrent—linking-up of prior sublimating—arising and prospective sublimating—prolongation with regards to the veridical ‘palpable dissolving/decentering of the conscious—self/collective-conscious—self’ so-underlying the very inherent relationship between ‘limitedness/human-subpotency’ (as to prospective re-encountering/re-confrontation) with ‘unlimitedness/existence—full-potency-of sublimating—nascence’’. And so-reflected notionally/epistemically/bindingnessly—as to determinism/conceptivity—of relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity as of ‘existentially—disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism’ manifest disontologising/re-ontologising thresholds/magnitudes’ (with regards to recurring consciousness/collective-consciousness shallow-supererogation/profound-supererogation in relation to the educing—and—availing—and—re-availing of relative-ontological-completeness—of—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing as to ‘veridical epistemic-totalising’—resubjecting_or_totalising-entailing—reconstrual—of—the—whole/purview-of—the—whole/oneness-of-ontology’ imbued ‘relative—nominalising/elucidation—of—relative—unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity’ reschedulability—as overriding prior—institutionalising—prior—mere—formulaicity/ritualisation—failing—requisite—prospective—profound—supererogation—for—sovereign—emergence’). This underlines the fact that overall human ‘meaningfulness-and—teleology’ and consciousness/collective-consciousness (as to ‘protracted-social—as-to—individual-by-institutional-by-social differential ontological-performance’—including—virtue—sublimation/emancipation/enfranchisement (as from human and individual rights proclamations, end of slavery/serfdom, women rights, end of colonialism, civil rights, etc. within the scope of their given epochal presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness controversies/conflicts) are rather of their successive epochal ‘identity politics’; as supposedly relevant only to the direct social categories in question, rather than the veracity of ‘overall human re-ontologising sublimation/emancipation/enfranchisement re-appraisal’ (as to when prospective relative-ontological-completeness is educed–and–availing–and–re-availing). As if to imply with our present delinearising–imbuing conscientiousness demoronisation–as to renewing realisation/re-perception/re-thought–reframing distance of appraisal in ‘reconstruing of reference-of-thought–devolving’ (with respect to such historical disontologising desublimation/unemancipation/disenfranchisement), any human (supposedly not of any of the direct social categories in question) can seriously entertain the notion that were such human disontologising desublimation/unemancipation/unenfranchisement to prospectively arise it wouldn’t be of their relevant concern (as to such an ontologically-flawed notion of ‘identity politics’ impervious to originary–and–re-originary/re-ontologising–nascency appraisal). Thusly, human sovereign–emergence/becoming–existentially-imbuing human freedom as to supererogating/surrealising for ‘knowledge empowerment over ignorance disempowerment’ as-of-developing-and-availing–sovereign-sublimating potential/potentialities/options/choices’–as-to-the–‘credibility’/‘ontological-veracity’–underlying-the–‘sovereign-conscious/conscientious-backdrop’ is effectively bounded (as to requisite ‘overall human re-ontologising sublimation/emancipation/enfranchisement re-appraisal’): to overarching ‘veridical notionality/epistemicity/bindingness=as-to-determinism/conceptivity–of-relative-unreflexivity:relative-reflexivity–conception–of–‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’—(reflection upon the

Thus beneath any supposedly underpinning–suprasocial-construct (reflected in the modern-day underlying socio-econo-political subontologisation/ideology-over-ontology whether technocratic, capitalistic or communist), is a more fundamental ‘nonpresencing—perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ notion of supererogatory–progressivity’ (however the ‘shallow-supererogation’ of supererogatory–progressivity’) accounting for the possibility for prospective human social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality—<as to disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism> sublimation/desublimation as in effect creatively permeating all such ‘underpinning–suprasocial-construct of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising–entailing’; and so (especially potent when such ‘nonpresencing—perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ notion of supererogatory–progressivity’ is manifested as of profound-supererogation entailing—amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness as to dimensionality-of-sublimating supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation) over ‘shallow-supererogation—supererogatory–progressivity’), as more critically superseding human delusions as to desublimating beholdening-becoming—distortive-originariness/distortive-origination—as-to—historicity-tracing—inhibited-mental-aestheticising (and thus reflecting the sublimating possibility for prospective ‘bechancing-backdrop of nonpresencing—perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ as to ‘bechancing—

In this respect we can appreciate with regards to the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ that its most critical/grave moments are moments at which it is hardly/poorly present/existent as to its ‘given implied totalising-entailing \textsuperscript{56}meaningfulness-and-teleology’ wherein for instance the social atrophying associated with the Great Depression rather elicited statal supererogatory–progressivity extending into the postwar era of sociopolitical and socioeconomic value renewal that can hardly be qualified as of capitalistic instigation in the pure sense of the word and in-many-ways the technocracy developed and resourced in the postwar years and the associated scientific and technical advancement especially in the face of the Cold War in-many-ways speak to an underlying supererogatory–progressivity on which waves the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ rode as so-reflected by Eisenhower cautioning about the U.S. militaroidustrial complex potential sycophantic exploitation of such overall national supererogatory–progressivity and further reflected as to the accruing of national technical and scientific dividends incommensurably to private capitalistic actors. Furthermore, moments of national socio-economic crises as to such capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ have always been critically involved with recouping and reallocating resources and means for a ‘poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model of social ascendency with respect to public externalities, taxation and public debt’ as such a capitalistic model increasingly developed in later years into a preconverging/postconverging–deme-mentative/structural/paradigmatic parasitising renting economic model associated with the explosion of financialisation especially as it substitutes/arrogates the social capacity to instigate formative supererogatory–progressivity initiatives (as it can now be appreciated that in-many-ways much of the postwar economy arose as of strong public and local governance directed investment in public infrastructure, housing and property which supererogatory–progressivity in-many-ways is now capitalistically substituted/arrogated rather as of a short-term renting-model that thrives upon creating winners and losers as to asset inflation strategy for skewed value-extraction). In a critical respect all the creative social supererogatory–progressivity after the postwar years is now reduced in terms of public mitigation of the deleterious fallouts from the capitalistic model all other social supererogatory–progressivity possibilities are now effectively assumed to lie with propping up a poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model (with respect to public subventions, bailouts, taxbreaks) and so notwithstanding the massive financial gains and transfers to tax havens as to a global economy of contrasting rising wealth disparity with the supererogatory–progressivity for individual and social creative initiatives construed as lying in a labour subsistence surrendering to whatever modest possibilities such capitalistic model makes available as supposedly an absolutely determining construct of human supererogatory–progressivity possibilities (while overlooking the reality of its manifest renting parasitising of social value and value possibilities). This in effect speaks to a ‘renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic colonising of the social capacity for supererogatory–progressivity’ as to imply that the social capacity for initiative can only be logged/cultured into the expropriating/estranging/constraining/limiting capitalistic model and so-reflected as of a globalised framework of totalising-entailing interlocking corporate interests and corporate welfaring that in effect critically and implicitly dictates to states (as of the subtle threat of runaway financial and economic disaster and/or state political-economy retrogradation for non-compliance) the very possibility for their full-capacity for supererogatory-progressivity while being well aloof of the public accounting that political actors running states have to fulfill thus speaking to a most fundamental globalised capitalistic induced democratic-deficit while relatively disempowered governments are left to pick-up-the-pieces (while preconverging/postconverging–de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically hemmed-in by the clerical counsels championing the capitalistic model) as to the blindness/sightlessness of a general public backlash (directed to media-driven impressionable narratives rather than to the protracted implications of the roguish capitalistic model), and so as to the more critical preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic international capitalistic system usurpation and undermining of the possibility for social supererogatory-progressivity and rendering democratic processes circularly unsatisfactory with the electorate increasingly resorting to protest and anti-incumbent votes. In-many-ways thus the supererogatory-progressivity potential of the global economy presents more opportunities than the capitalistic model arrogatingly seem to imply as in-many-ways it can be argued that as of individual and social supererogatory-progressivity much of ‘vocational rationale’, ‘vocational skills’, ‘vocational economic models’ and ‘vocational creativity’ underlying the capitalistic model can perfectly thrive without capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’; and so as to the fact that the very notion of capitalistic enterprising across the world takes various shapes and forms wherein the ‘more doctrinaire skewed value-extraction and market distorting models’ ride-the-wave of profound value creation activities (often of poorly compensated supererogatory-progressivity) and in-many-ways undermining the inclination for profound value creation as to the shortcut for short-term returns. This capitalistic model of skewed value-extraction undermines the possibility of overall human supererogatory–progressivity as to when in the contest between optimal-resource-allocation for value-creation as to the requisite creativity for individuals and social supererogatory–progressivity and skewed value-extraction eventually reflects poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model (but for mechanisms of external and foreign relocations exploiting the externalities investments in education and infrastructure of second and third world countries) but still posing the question as to how skewed value-extraction can preconverging/postconverging–dementatively/structurally/paradigmatically address in the long-run issues of requisite social and public investment as a requisite for a theoretically self-sustaining economic model (not critically driven and supported by the supererogatory–progressivity prioritisation of local or foreign state) as ‘arrogating public supererogatory–progressivity at the exclusion of overall social and resourcefulness/ingenious possibilities’. Interestingly, the more explicit manifestation of supererogatory–progressivity as underlying any given underpinning–suprasocial-construct is most obvious today with the Chinese economic revolution as to the creative impetus driving its overall socioeconomic transformation. Here again it is fair to say just like with the Japanese and South Korean economic revolutions (given their more uniform and deferential populations) there is a whole directedness here (beyond just a purist capitalism model especially of a renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic model) and so as to ‘country supererogatory–progressivity directed whole socioeconomic transformation project’, and in-many-ways the capacity for the Chinese to now begin to invest abroad lies with this relatively healthy supererogatory–progressivity conception/model less betrothed to short-term skewed value-extraction poorly capable of fulfilling the necessary externalities investment to thrive in weaker developing markets (in contrast to the long-term resource-allocation needed to make such markets stable and sustainable). But then in reality when push-came-to-shove the fact is that the postwar history of all modern developed governments was hardly about their naïve subjection to a purist capitalistic model to rebuild themselves as in reality their redevelopment involved initial and massive public-driven investments in association with already matured nation-building human resource as to the reality of their supererogatory–progressivity national development programmes (especially as in the middle of the 20th century international trade accounted for just a small part of economic growth) and it is this that purportedly then gave way in later years to a the rising capitalistic model associated with privatisations and private equitisation; and this supererogatory–progressivity model applied in the postwar governments of Western Europe, the United States as well as China, Japan and South Korea as to their initial economic redevelopment. Paradoxically one of the most deleterious postwar economic policy stances advanced with respect to many a third world country as to the prodding of international economic organisations and as ‘abstractly and vaguely theorised’ by capitalist economists was the advocacy of nation-building in the third world following their postwar independence on the basis of the purist capitalistic model, thus leading in-many-ways to perpetuating the dependence of these nations on these international economic organisations as having to submit to the capitalistic ‘shallow-supererogation’ of supererogatory–progressivity’ as so-associated with debt servitude and preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic adjustment programmes. The fact then is that the only nations in the postwar years that ‘truly experienced anything closed to the pure capitalistic economic model as devoid of any national supererogatory–progressivity investment-drive and social programmes mitigation for the consequences of the capitalistic model’ are in-many-ways third world countries of limited human and natural resources to be capable of instigating national supererogatory–progressivity with respect to their incipiently disadvantageous circumstances (especially compounded by their limited nation-building human resources) and this in-many-ways accounts for their high and relatively inefficient and subsistence informal sectors as to the relative inability of state resources to construct profound and sustainable projects of socioeconomic development (and even then when given the chance with the little means available as of a natural intuition they recoursed essentially to supererogatory–progressivity initiatives like education and basic infrastructural capacities that will hardly pass the test of a true profit-driven and value-extraction capitalistic model), and more critically so as to their more profound interests in social stability in-the-very-first-place which can only arise as from a basic level of social wellbeing of their populations before even practically utterly appropriating any such abstract capitalistic model rationale (which in-many-ways actually served to induce a skewed logic on the basis of which natural resources exploiting corporations from developed countries exploit third world natural resources on unfair shallow-supererogation\textsuperscript{16} economic terms) and as the short-termism of such a capitalistic model can hardly contribute to inducing the requisite political stability for sustained economic progress (with the capitalistic model as to its self-serving requirement rather warranting the requisite externalities possibilities for its thriving to be established beforehand). The more abstract rationale here (as to ‘human-decisionality–\textless as-to-play-of-valid/invalid-decisionality-imbued-sublimation/desublimation\textgreater omni-potential commensurability with inherent immanent-existence’s sublimation-structure’/omnipotentiality) is to reflect the reality today of underlying human supererogatory–progressivity as to the incipient reality that human family, communal, clanic and national communities cannot truly operate on the totalising-entailing basis of a purist capitalistic model of social organisation (as to the very risk of undermining social organisation as reflected in the relative prioritisation of national education and basic public facilities in the post-independence years in many Third world countries) with such a purist conception rather reflected as to capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ in a rather comprehensively developed framework/mechanism of value-allocation and value-extraction necessarily underlied notionally by a basic level of supererogatory–progressivity allow for the ‘delusion/sleight projected about a purist conception of capitalism’ (serving rather the more veridical and underlying self-serving ‘dominance/vested-interest—drivenness—<as-to-its-direct/indirect-eliciting-by-or-exploiting-of-prospectively-descalarising/subontologising-sycophantic-sophistic-interests,—as-inducing-prospective-threshold-of-institutional-and-social-desublimation> of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness social-vestedness/normativity—<discretely-implied-functionalism>). Further the capitalistic model as to its fabrication of winners and losers given its ‘all englobing critical delimiting/catchmenting-by-rejection of human supererogatory–progressivity possibilities’ increasingly brings peoples at loggerheads across races, classes, regions and nations with the implication that since it is centrally/critically defining as to the modern-day statal conception of social supererogatory–progressivity possibilities, there must necessarily be losers and winners with no creative supererogatory–progressivity beyond this dilemma; thus as to the fact that there can’t be a profound humanity-level creative supererogatory–progressivity as well as decolonised–capitalistic-by-statal supererogatory–progressivity so-construed as ‘anarchical individual and social supererogatory–progressivity’. Such a representation as herein articulated of the truer supererogatory–progressivity (however the ‘shallow-supererogation’ of supererogatory–progressivity’) beneath the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ is hardly reflected today as to ‘hardened narratives of an absolutising pure capitalistic model’ as mirroring the very ruthlessness associated with the renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic model (as so-enculturated socially and mediatically as to presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness social-vestedness/normativity—<discretely-implied-functionalism>). The relative veracity of supererogatory–progressivity is strongly seen with the state-driven Asian and European supererogatory–progressivity economies (with the Germans, Japanese and Chinese out-competing the U.S. with respect to trade balance and so without all the ‘grandoise capitalistic economic theorising’ but on the more veridical realism of policy-driven supererogatory– progressivity) and as even in the U.S. there is atleast a critical level of strategic supererogatory– progressivity with local states definitely adopting incentives-driven approaches of supererogatory–progressivity; all this speaking from a totalising-entailing perspective analysis of the purist capitalistic model as poorly self-sustaining of its socioeconomic framework (especially its relative irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity with regards to foundational externalities like education, infrastructure, well thought-out policies, collective social advancement, etc.). The bigger question that then arises has to do with the possibility for optimal human supererogatory–progressivity ‘beyond just the statism and geostrategy/states-competition muddled framework’ that is preconvergingly–de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to induce skewed ‘shallow-supererogation’ of supererogatory–progressivity’ as to capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’.
Taking a step aback, in-many-ways the reality of the very fundamental notion of the capitalistic model speaking of perfect markets do not exist, and rather ‘markets themselves develop as advantageously created situations after the facts’ as to the requisite human creative supererogatory–progressivity for a market to even arise; and in this respect the supposed fittest notion of capitalistic competition as to punctual/immediacy/constituted/compulsions-encumbered fitness tends to underperform the more advantageous supererogative contemplative deliberation of markets for critically efficient/optimising resource allocation/utilisation/development (as to the fact that preconverging/postconverging–de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically the relatively deliberative conceptualisation of markets associated with say German, Japanese, Chinese, South Korean public-policy supererogatory–progressivity economic models participate in their competitive edge over ‘vague/abstract punctual/immediacy/constituted/compulsions-encumbered fitness notion of capitalistic competition’ that speaks to an overall deliberative optimalising potential of human

(as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition) in renewing the genuine social intellectual–function/posture engagement for such re-ontologising philosophers engagement with supposed sophists as to the eliciting of the universal-transparency\textsuperscript{103} \{(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing\textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising\textless in-relative-ontological-completeness}\} of philosophy implied universalising-idealisation as ontological-good-faith/authenticity\textsuperscript{69} over non-universalising sophistry as ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\textsuperscript{64}. Likewise in many ways budding positivists were rather critically/precisely involved in ‘thinking at first/pure predisposition preemptive of prospective disontologising/subontologising’ eliciting of the universal-transparency\textsuperscript{103} \{(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing\textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising\textless in-relative-ontological-completeness}\} of positivism/rational-empiricism as ontological-good-faith/authenticity\textsuperscript{69} over non-positivism/medievalism as ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\textsuperscript{64}. Both cases respectively projected the universal-transparency\textsuperscript{103} \{(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing\textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising\textless in-relative-ontological-completeness}\} that re-ontologising prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology resided respectively with universalising-idealisation and positivism/rational-empiricism with respect to any solipsistic ontological-good-faith/authenticity\textsuperscript{69} inclination notwithstanding any prior influences it had as of prior \textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising–thrownness-in-existence\textsuperscript{31}. thinking –qualia-schema> as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness as-of-reference-of-thought actually points out that the uninstitutionalised-threshold is rather a point of de-mentation-(supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation-stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) which is what justifies the pre-eminence of the prospective institutionalisation attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme over the uninstitutionalised-threshold attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme. We can effectively grasp why Heidegger’s implicated insight as of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity <<<between—prior-shallow-supererogation of-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema_and_prospective-profound-supererogation –of-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> but rather being associated with a given tradition actually couldn’t break through the barrier of perceiving notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity <<<between—prior-shallow-supererogation of-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema_and_prospective-profound-supererogation –of-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> as ‘futural way of thinking’, as it misperceived that any tradition can reveal as of its inherent nature the ‘futural way of thinking’, rather than that this lies with a ‘universal principle understanding of the transformation of traditions’ and thus how such universal principle understanding as of its universal implications informs about the ‘futural way of thinking’. In this regard, we can equally understand why Heidegger’s supposed criticism of Cartesianism was altogether a misplaced analysis given that a ‘universal principle understanding of the transformation of traditions’ as herein implied by this author in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity–ontological-contiguity –of-the-human-institutionalisation-process, would have provided the insight that Descartes was actually ‘establishing a positivism tradition as of futural way of thinking’ breaking away from non-positivism/medievalism and so ‘as to the fact that dimensionality-of-sublimating *\( \langle <\text{amplituding/formative}\rangle \text{supererogatory-de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness} /\text{transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation} \rangle \) as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal/unenframing/re-ontologising,-elicited-from-prospective–profound-supererogation’ is aporetically the more fundamental incipient/seeding originariness-parrhesia,—as–spontaneity-of-aestheticisation to Descartes thinking-proposition for budding-positivism reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation’ and thus in-many-ways the naïve/flawed Cartesianism today arise as to a reasoning as from reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation perspective whereas Descartes is more fundamentally involved in an postconverging–aporeticism—overcoming/unovercoming exercise with respect to medieval-scholasticism non-positivising (as of dimensionality-of-sublimating *\( \langle <\text{amplituding/formative}\rangle \text{supererogatory-de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness} /\text{transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation} \rangle \) as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal/unenframing/re-ontologising,-elicited-from-prospective–profound-supererogation’ which as of ‘self-reflexive–instigative-eventuating—{as-to-teleological-instigative/incipient—willing/arbitrariness/waywardness/faithdrivenness/supererogating-for-human-intelligibility,—preceding-existence’s-eventuating-sublimating-validation/desublimating-invalidation} philosophically generates his thinking-proposition as to prospective reasoning-from-results/afterthought implied budding-positivism reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation; such that budding-positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting becomes intelligible, thus revealing that Heidegger implied notional-discontiguity/epistemicdevelopment/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology just as Descartes issue in articulating budding-positivism/rational-empiricism (traditionally construed-as-rationalism) was not with setting up its “meaningfulness-and-teleology” in contention with prior non-positivism prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought over non-positivism/medievalism prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought.

We thus see why the future redevelopment of Heideggerian misconceived prospective notional‘preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic disseminative implications’ was the mathesis universalis metaphoricity extended development/influence on the works of the Galileos, Descartes, Newtons, Leibnizes and others that ultimately reflected an underlying reality of prospective reference-of-thought de-mentation(supererogatory–ontological–de-mentation-or-dialectical–de-mentation—stranding-or-

In effect it is herein contended that what is implicitly missed about the Cartesian proposition ‘I think therefore I am’ is not the idea that Descartes contemplates that he is the first person to be self-conscious about his thinking; rather his underlying reasoning is ‘more than just speculative doubting’ but ‘motivated doubting’ that is highly contextual-as-of-the-non-positivism/medieval-epoch and highly prefigurative-as-to-what-Descartes-wants-to-do-of-transformative-with-thinking-given-that-context postconverging—aporeticism—overcoming/unovercoming (underlying that Descartes’ dimensionality-of-sublimating)<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvalutative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation) as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal/unenframing/re-ontologising—elicited-from-prospective—profound-supererogation is aporetically the more fundamental incipient/seeding originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation in then secondarily inducing his thinking-proposition for budding-positivism reproducibility—mathesis/motif/throwness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation). That is, Descartes seeks to affirm the ‘mereness of thought’ beyond any existing habit-and-tradition-of-thought as of non-positivism/medievalism pedantic dogmatism reasoning-from-results/afterthought, and so liberated rearticulate thought ‘out of thin air’ as of prospective reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning as reflected by his novel mathesis universalis metaphoricity rationalism schema/dissemination that permeates all of his works such that even with his ontological argument something subtle and more original is happening, in that unlike many medieval-scholasticism dogmatic interpretations that construe of a supernatural permeation into the natural, in affirming the ontological argument Descartes blocks—out/passivises the supernatural from the natural with the metaphoricity implication that the natural can be thought of operationally and in sublimation on its own terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct. Thus Descartes ‘I think therefore I am’ is rather a statement of intent as of a ‘futural way of thinking and sublimation’ and its budding-positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’, that is unique as ‘consciously setting up the pre-eminence of thinking in eliciting-and-resolving systemic doubting and postconvergingly–dementating/structuring/paradigming the possibility of elucidation of any subject on this thinking educating sublimation basis’. In effect Descartes project is actually as to existence-potency ~sublimating–nascent,–disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression relative-ontological-completeness of–apriorising/axiomatising/referencing as of positivism/rational-empiricism, and so from the prior presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness of non-positivism/medievalism. With both the budding-positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme and postmodern deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme, we may be forgiven to confuse-and-dismiss their schema as-to-preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic—disseminative-implications as of prospective reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning as incoherent from a shallow-and-immediate uninsightful analytical perspective on the basis of the respectively prior reasoning-from-results/afterthought of non-positivism/medievalism and positivism/rational-empiricism manifestation of procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought (since as of the latter relative-ontological-incompleteness perspective ‘all the reasoning in the world’ is only respectively as of non-positivism/medievalism

The appropriate contemplative perspective for the appreciation of their schema as-to-preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic—disseminative-implications is effectively crossgenerational as of the amplitude/breadth of reference-of-thought implied transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—dementativity; as we can effectively appreciate that the very mathesis universalis schema/disseminative metaphoricity engendering our positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting attitude/mental-disposition/care—and–episteme is still ongoing today even as it is more clearly demarcated as initiated about 500 years ago. The overall logic of this notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity mental-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema_and_prospective-profound-supererogation –of-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> analysis, implied as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought, can be understood simply as of the relation between existence which is already given and human-subpotency which as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness grasp more and more what is of the full-potency of existence by way of its axiomatic-constructs of existence or of purviews of existence, with its grandest axiomatic-construct as an epistemic-totalising/circumscribing/delineating construct being the reference-of-thought. We can grasp that it is not existence and purviews of existence which will adjust to human-subpotency for ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology but rather human-subpotency adjusting as to existence-potency~sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression; with such adjusting being construed as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness. But then humankind as of its developed-and-invested habits and traditions about existence counterintuitively relates to existence and purviews of existence as if it supersedes them, and thus do not or poorly construes of prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought/relative-ontological-completeness of axiomatic-construct as an issue of human-subpotency adjustment as of psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification, implied as of de-mentation-including with respect to such implications in the natural sciences are rather ‘supposedly invalidating’ wholly with respect to the authors of such scam studies coming out with the arguments of their ‘intendedness of invalidation’; with the legitimate contention that such ploys are thus surreptitious manoeuvres for preempting a given orientation of thought ‘not because of the inherent invalidity of such orientations as of inherent theoretical knowledge arguments in undermining such orientations’ but rather as a ploy of ‘inducing popularised scientific ideology’ to surreptitiously stifle such orientations without truly engaging in undermining its theorisation.

Bogusness or non-bogusness is not a relevant scientific criteria, though granted it can be a relevant criteria for ‘surreptitious media-driven invalidation’, as science-in-practice is about ultimate cause-and-effect relationships, and in practical terms many scientific studies are rather elaborated as of ‘deferred cause-and-effect constraint’ as a reifying gesture for ultimate cause-and-effect determination. The fact that similar scam studies for the ‘intendedness of invalidation’ cannot be construed as scientifically valid with respect to any given orientation of study renders such manoeuvres intellectually void, and whatever their underlying ‘covert goals’ and however genuine their authors are of intent. It is very much important in this regard that intellectuals, whether in the natural sciences or in the social and humanities, not be cowered/enframed by non-intellectual/extra-intellectual approaches to ‘acknowledged intellectual ways and approaches for intellectual argumentation’, and not even if such approaches are media-driven, so because much that is central and critical to intellectualism is about exploring all possibilities.) actually what empowers the possibility for prospective institutionalisations that surpersede/transcend it. In other words, humans in the various prior institutionalisations before our positivism were not limited to their various registry-worldviews/dimensions as recurrent—utter-uninstitutionalisation, base-institutionalisation, universalisation and our positivism just because they were inherently different from us as a species, but because of the need for the necessary institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-reflected-epistemicity-relativism-determinism of understanding as of its organic-knowledge to enable the-very-same species to accede prospective institutionalisations as of human-subpotency adjusting to the full-potency of existence, and not the false certainty/assurance that any human registry-worldview/dimension is fully developed and that existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality will adjust to it, however our myopic/cloistered 60–100 years of living perspective. That is, grounding of meaningfulness-and-teleology is certainly required, but as of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity it is not about grounding as of the present but rather as of psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification for prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought; and as highlighted elsewhere it is ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought (of human-subpotency as of its limited-mentation-capacity-deepening—as-subjecting-limitedness/human-subpotency-to-educed-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nascence) that can imply human-subpotency-ontological-performance-including-virtue-as-ontology/morality/ethics/justice/etc correspondence with the full-potency of existence. Central to any such prospective institutionalisation transcendentaleabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity^5^ meaningfullness-and-teleology^9^ is the fact that the human mind is not necessarily geared to come to terms with prospective relative-ontological-completeness^87^-of^-^reference-of-thought without the necessary psychoanalyticunshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification as of the developed disposition to register such implications as of their intemporal-longness of register of^56^ meaningfullness-and-teleology^99^ pertinence; as the notion of crossgenerational de-mentation-(supererogatory–ontological–de-mentation-or-dialectical–de-mentation—or-stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) herein highlighted has ever always been an unconscious human mental process, wherein the mental-disposition hardly places itself in a situation of explaining how its own very present mental-disposition comes about from preceding generations mental-dispositions and drawing the implications, in going beyond excogitative-blanking as of the present in a cloistered-consciousness but which is paradoxically necessarily the framework of such transcendentally implying^56^ meaningfullness-and-teleology^99^.

Thus the metaphoricity^7^ exercise of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity is not one of necessarily eliciting instant^56^ meaningfullness-and-teleology^99^ universal approbation but rather instigating^10^ universal untenability as of amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality^6^-as-to-projective-totalitative–implications-of-prospective-nonpresencing,-for-explicating–relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity—ontological-contiguity for prospective^10^ universal positive-opportunism—of-social-functioning-and-accordance^7^; as we can appreciate that in reality the possibility of the successive institutionalisations was not the outcome of every human soul grasping the implications as of the successive transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity but rather as of a generative dynamics as of critical drift/gravitating effect in reflection of difference-conflatedness^13^-as-to-totalitative-reification-in-singularisation->as-to-the-
